Business

- Discussed Spring Conference (April 11th, 2017), location set for the Apple Valley Senior Center (no fee).
- Spring conference training schedule confirmed. All presenters are locked in to present.
- POR presentation extended, lunch will start at 1200 hours.
- Sean McKnight will be organizing lunch through Q Doba. Q Doba requested letter from MNSCIA to confirm catering license.
- Sean McKnight also agreed to purchase water and cookies for the spring conference. He will also be checking for bulk coffee supplies at the senior center.
- Sean McKnight, Jeff Schoeberl, Alesia Metry to arrive early to help set up. Beth Eilers and Kenna Dick are also a possibility for showing up early to help.

Other Business

- Fall Conference Discussion
 - Speaker Discussions
 - Beth Eilers outlined Ken McDonald's presentation on Wetterling Case. Most likely need 3- 4 hours for presentation as it includes, video footage, scientists, DNA evidence and lessons learned about the investigation.
 - Bemidji kidnapping case study and Cass County abduction cases are still in the court process and will not be able to be presented
 - Possible presentation on DOJ "compassion and exhaustion" to educate members about the stresses of the job. Beth Eilers saw the presentation and believed it to be beneficial.
 - Kevin Randolph to present case study of U of M rape case that was featured on Dr. Phil.
 - POR and Legal Updates will also be presented.
 - Dan Raden to contact investigator for the Sandusky Case. Most likely a full day presentation.
 - At this time, still looking for a presentation to fill a half day at the fall conference.
- Discussion about adding the sex crime investigator "tool box" to MNSCIA website.
 - This would include helpful information such as search warrant language for investigators.
 - Beth Eilers, Jeff Schoeberl and Kris Boomer will be compiling documents and sending them to Dan Raden for collection.

Motion to adjourn by Molly Lynch at 1143 hours, second by Beth Eilers, motion approved.

Next meeting on Tuesday, March 21st, 2017 at 1100 hours at Edina PD.
